

Visual action plan template

This template can be used by a careers advisor to summarise a careers discussion with an autistic young person. It includes actions that the young person has agreed to take to achieve their career goals.

How should this template be used?

The Careers action plan can be drawn with the young person or created after the careers meeting. The Visual action plan should have less text and could follow a mind mapping technique or use icons to symbolise discussion points.

The careers adviser will send a copy of the Careers action plan to the young person and ask whether it can be shared with the school/ college. You should be clear about how the Careers action plan will be used, e.g. this document, if shared, may be used in your annual review and/or in conversations with staff about careers and employability.
