

Groups

Groups are members of young people who offer advice to different organisations.

Groups include health panel, youth council, advising the postal museum and more.

If you are interested in joining any groups please email the participation team.

participation@ambitiousaboutautism.org.uk